A 10th grader recently began to attend one of our clubs. He was very proud to tell everyone that he was an atheist. After a few visits to club he was asked by the leader, "if you don't believe in God why do you keep coming back?" "I like you guys and the meetings are fun".

Our annual winter camp was being promoted at club. He attended. Nothing happened except we learned he had a temper and he seem to be mad at the world. He signed up for our spring youth conference called Impact 2018. This surprised us because none of his friends were planning to attend. Saturday at Impact the speaker gave an alter call. He was the first one from his group to respond. His leader was shocked, excited, and confused. Why would this highly committed atheist respond to an alter call. Well, God was truly at work in his life and that evening this young man prayed to ask Christ into his life.

The next day he approached his club leader, "will you pray with me?" "Sure, but what do you want to pray for?" "I want God to fill my heart with love and kindness and take this anger away." Wow! A changed life has begun.

When we got home he asked for a whole bunch of Bibles. One is all you need. "No", he said, "I want to start a Bible Study with my atheist friends." The Bible Study didn't go over to well with them but he was trying.
